Dear Parents/Carers

This week brings us to the end of a very interrupted Term 1. Despite the stop start nature at the beginning of the year we have much to celebrate. We held a very successful Cross Country event last Friday, congratulations to Thurston House for their overall win. We have celebrated our 2022 school leaders and student council representatives; and we have acknowledged “National Day against Bullying” and “Harmony Day” by wearing orange and celebrated our “Key to Kindness Culture”.

We have held our Parents and Citizens Annual General Meeting and have welcomed our new executive members: Mrs Donna Urquhart (Vice President) and Mrs Corrinne Hodder (Secretary). Heartfelt thanks to our outgoing Executive team: Mr PJ Davies (President); Mr David Camper (Secretary); Mrs Katrina Rogers (Treasurer); Mrs Juliana Comacho and Ms Casey Taylor (Vice Presidents).

At the AGM it was decided that we will change the day and time of the P&C General meetings for 2022 in an attempt to support those who have availability during the day and to increase the volunteer base for events. Our next meeting will be held on Thursday 12th May at 8.30am in the administration building. We look forward to seeing some new members.

Please note that to attend, parents MUST provide evidence of double vaccination status.

The P&C executive team are keen to meet parents and carers and invite you to a morning catch up on Wednesday 20th April from 8.30-9.30am.

Formal Parent Teacher Interviews will be offered early Term 3 in 2022 to discuss the Term 2 report card. Bookings for this will be done online closer to the time. If you would like to make a time to speak to your child’s classroom teacher prior to this please email them directly to schedule.
